Find what you're looking for at Mission Today.

The Mission Today adult day program offers two levels of care that foster positive interaction with peers, based on each person's cognitive ability. We'll engage you with physical, social, recreational and health-related activities. Our licensed nursing staff is available throughout the day to monitor blood pressure, weight and nutrition. All program rooms feature secure entrances allowing us to serve an array of people, from those with no memory impairment to those experiencing later stages of dementia.
